

STEM GEMS

DECEMBER 13TH, 2018

6PM - 7PM

NORTHVIEW BLACK BOX THEATER

GUEST SPEAKER: STEPHANIE ESPY

Stephanie Espy is a chemical engineer with degrees from MIT, UC Berkeley, and Emory. As a female and minority, she has experienced firsthand the gender gap in the classroom and the industry. She wrote the book STEM Gems to give girls role models in these fields. Come hear her share her experiences, stories from other STEM Gems, and actionable steps to help girls succeed in STEM disciplines.
